

The Paul Childress Athletic Scholarship — $500 Award

GRAND ISLAND SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Established in memory of Tonawanda native and world-renowned powerlifter Paul Childress, this scholarship honors a Grand Island Senior High School athlete who exemplifies dedication, perseverance, and heart—regardless of ability. Despite early learning challenges, Paul became a professional athlete, collegiate All-American, world record-holding powerlifter, coach, and mentor. He was known not only for his strength but for his compassion, leadership, and unshakable commitment to others. This scholarship celebrates his belief that all levels of dedication and commitment matter and supports students pursuing college or trade careers.

Application Deadline: April 1

Notification Date: Award recipients will be notified by August 1.
